

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION 537

By Roberts

A RESOLUTION to recognize Adam Randolph on becoming an Eagle Scout.

WHEREAS, at a time when this nation's youth face difficult challenges, the Boy Scouts of America is one of our finest assets, providing young men with an educational program that contributes significantly to their character development, citizenship training, and improved mental and physical fitness; and

WHEREAS, the highest rank a Boy Scout can attain is that of Eagle Scout, and Adam Randolph, after considerable effort and diligent preparation, has joined the prestigious Eagle Court of Honor; and

WHEREAS, the son of Steve and Teresa Randolph, Adam is a student at White House Heritage High School, where he has demonstrated considerable ability as a leader among his peers; and

WHEREAS, his notable record of achievement as a member of Boy Scout Troop 459 includes numerous merit badges and distinguished service; and

WHEREAS, for his Eagle project, Adam planned and supervised the construction of a bridge behind his high school to connect parking lots that were separated by a drainage ditch, forcing students to walk around it. The successful completion of the bridge greatly contributed to the betterment of his school and community and reflected the true spirit of volunteerism; and

WHEREAS, it is appropriate that we should pause to recognize Adam Randolph as one of the most outstanding young people in our State; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE ONE HUNDRED NINTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES CONCURRING, that we hereby honor and congratulate Adam Randolph on becoming an Eagle Scout and extend to him our best wishes for every future success.
